Junior Piano Adjudicator Chloe Weston

Chloe Weston is a pianist from North Bay, Ontario. She is a graduate of Western University's Don Wright Faculty of Music, where she completed her Master of Music in Performance and Literature under the direction of Stéphan Sylvestre. During her time at Western, Chloe studied chamber music and vocal coaching with John Hess, and solo piano with Leslie Kinton. Chloe has performed in a variety of collaborations including piano four-hands, piano duo, chamber music, lieder, and art song. Chloe won first prize in The North Bay Symphony Orchestra's Young Performers Competition and performed as featured soloist with the NBSO in 2012. She served as repetiteur for Halifax Summer Opera Festival's production of Kurt Weill's Street Scene. As a collaborative pianist, she studied at the Bel Canto Summer Voice Academy in Munich, Germany with Lorne Richstone. At festivals, such as Orford Festival de Musique and Scotia Festival of Music, Chloe performed in masterclasses with Benjamin Pasternak, Lynn Stodola, and Simon Docking, and studied with acclaimed Latvian pianist, Reinis Zarins. She has served as repetiteur and vocal coach for various musical theatre productions, most recently for The Secret Garden in December 2016 with London Community Players, which won a Brickenden Award for Outstanding Musical. Chloe recently completed a residency at the Banff Centre for the Arts with Pedja Muzijevic, focussing on the form classical music concerts can take in the 21st century. Chloe maintains a private piano studio in London, Ontario, where she enjoys sharing her love of music with her students.
