Margaret Maria Tobolowska

Margaret Maria Tobolowska is a dynamic, versatile, and multi-faceted artist. In 2011, she resigned from her professional post as cellist with the National Arts Centre Orchestra in Canada to follow her dream of composing and producing her own music. Her 2 children's albums, A Cello for Chelsea (2005) and Zara the Maggini (2006) were her first creative musical stories that incorporate her narration, musical compositions, and arrangements, into delightful performances that spark the imagination of children and adults alike. Margaret Maria is currently scoring music for film and is a member of the Screen Composers Guild of Canada.

Born in Toronto, Margaret Maria began playing the cello at the age of twelve and was admitted to the University of Toronto when she was sixteen.
